

Locums: Making Them “Work” for You and Your Community!

Locums:

Locum placements are an important part of your community's recruitment and retention strategy. This updated module shares best practices to assist you with finding locum physicians, and to provide a positive experience for the locum physicians and your hospital or community.

To access the module, please click here.