

ARUN SHRICHAND

Arun Shrichand, MPA (M)
Manager, Health Systems and Policy

Mr. Arun Shrichand is Manager of the Office of Health System and Policies Unit at the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. For the last ten years, he has supported the Royal College's various initiatives in health policy related research and analysis. His research interests include physician workforce planning, such as investigating issues related to the provision of physician services to Canada's elderly population, generational and gender based trends in clinical practice, and the examination of employment trends in clinical disciplines across the country.

Mr. Shrichand has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Carleton University and subsequently obtained a Master's Degree in Public Administration (Management) at Dalhousie University.