

DR. JENNIFER YOUNG

Dr. Jennifer Young practices comprehensive family practice in Collingwood, including part time emergency work, hospitalist, low risk obstetrics and teaching.

She is presently the President of the Ontario College of Family Physicians.

She has been Chief of Family Practice at the Collingwood General and Marine Hospital and QI Lead at the Georgian Bay Family Health Team.

She has championed the Choosing Wisely campaign and was course developer for the course Practising Wisely for which she still facilitates.

Dr. Young has worked five years of her career in the developing world.

She is married, has three daughters at university and loves living and working in Collingwood.